

DANGEROUS GOODS SEMINAR

11 NOVEMBER 2019 • 9.30AM-5PM • MIDAS HOTEL & CASINO, PASAY CITY

Organized by

Dear colleagues,

Join us for the whole-day Seminar on Dangerous Goods to be conducted by International Air Transport Association (IATA) officials from Geneva, Singapore and Manila on Nov 11, 2019 at the Midas Hotel and Casino. Topics for discussion:

- Regulatory updates and changes adopted by the International Civil Aviation Organization Dangerous Goods Panel adopted in 2019, and their potential effect on dangerous goods shipments acceptance and handling;
- Local regulations that are in place, including applicable legislation, affecting dangerous goods handling via international air transport; and
- Awareness of Airline/Freight Forwarder/Ground Handling Agent roles in the transport/handling/acceptance of dangerous goods for air cargo.

Seminar fee per participant: US$300 net (includes free copy of the IATA 2020 Dangerous Goods Regulations Manual.) Fee represents a 16% discount from the regular book price of US$348 plus shipping. In addition to the book discount, participants will learn DG regulations straight from IATA officials; receive a certificate of attendance signed by IATA; and enjoy 2 snacks and a buffet lunch.

Email events@portcalls.com and secretariat@pmtlai.com or call 852-7180, 551-1775, or 551-3871 for details.

Deadline for registration is October 28, 2019. Payment must be made on or before October 30, 2019.

Thank you and we hope to welcome you to the IATA Seminar on Dangerous Goods.

Sincerely,

Philippine Multimodal Transport and Logistics Association, Inc (PMTLAI) and PortCalls
