New RCL service linking Mindanao with Asia, Middle East starts

- Regional Container Lines (RCL) made its maiden port call at Mindanao Container Terminal on December 19, 2020 to connect the Misamis Oriental port, as well as Cebu, to Asia and the Middle East via Singapore
- The service is operated by two vessels and covers the Singapore-Cebu–Cagayan de Oro (MCT)-Singapore route
- With new investments in equipment and facilities and the RCL's new service, MCT projects a 7% growth in 2021

INTERNATIONAL shipping line and feeder operator Regional Container Lines (RCL) has started a fixed-day weekly service at Mindanao Container Terminal (MCT) that connects the Misamis Oriental port and Cebu to the rest of Asia and the Middle East via Singapore.

RCL's South Philippines 6 (RSP6) made its first port call at MCT on December 19, 2020 with the 628-TEU (twenty-foot equivalent unit) MV Pira Bhum. The service was launched in the Philippines through RCL's Southern Philippine agent Eagle Express Lines.

The service is operated by two vessels and covers the Singapore-Cebu-Cagayan de Oro (MCT)-Singapore route.

The vessels turn in Singapore, which serves as a transshipment hub and provides connections from Cebu, Cagayan de Oro, and Zamboanga to other Southeast Asian markets, the Indian subcontinent and the Middle East, while also serving the markets further north such as China and South Korea.

MCT general manager Roberto Locsin said the regular service calls can be considered as a product superhighway that will help farmers, manufacturers, and other producers in the Philippines to deliver time-sensitive commodities fast and in-bulk without the huge cost.

"Now more than ever, local businesses need help to bounce back, and the new service line will undoubtedly give them the boost they need," Locsin said.

PHIVIDEC Industrial Authority administrator and chief executive officer (CEO) Jose Gabriel La Viña said the new service strengthens the position of the City of Cagayan de Oro and the rest of Misamis Oriental as a major agro-industrial exporter.

"The availability of a regular and predictable service to a major international hub also presents opportunities for entrepreneurs and industries to move up the value chain. This could only mean higher incomes, more jobs, and a more comfortable life for our people," he said.

MCT is located inside PHIVIDEC's industrial estate in Tagaloan, Misamis Oriental.

Eagle Express Group chairman and CEO Angelito Colona, meanwhile, sees the new service as a bright opportunity for the country, while Eagle Express Lines general manager Marlon Isah de Guzman described it as "a game-changer" for the industry.

RCL is a Thai-based shipping line that owns and operates 46 container vessels covering more than 66 destinations in Asia, India, India subcontinent and the Middle East. The company has been operating in the Philippines for 32 years.

In 2020, MCT expanded its port equipment fleet, extended the berth length through the installation of an inland bollard and dolphin moor, and opened a 4.5-hectare empty container depot inside the terminal.

With these investments and the presence of RCL's new service, MCT projects a 7% growth in 2021 which it noted is a "highly significant target considering the global economy is still recovering from the pandemic."

Starting January 15, cargo releasing from Cebu International Port (CIP) will be carried out from 9:00 p.m. to 5:00 a.m. to align with truck bans implemented by the local government and to address clogging of vehicles on roads leading to the pier during daytime.

The new policy was agreed upon in a consultative meeting on January 7, according to a report by Sugbo News, the official publication of the Cebu provincial government.

The agreement was made between Cebu governor Gwendolyn Garcia, Cebu Port Authority, Bureau of Customs, truckers groups, Land Transportation Office 7, Land Transportation Franchising and Regulatory Board 7, CIP cargo-handling operator Oriental Port and Allied Services Corp., Mandaue city government representatives, Consolacion mayor Joannes Alegado, and Liloan mayor Christina Frasco.

The new policy reportedly aims to ensure that truckers in Cebu can still fulfill their deliverables while the Cebu

Lee is named DHL Global Forwarding Phils managing director

- Yvonne Lee appointed managing director of DHL Global Forwarding Philippines
- Niki Frank, CEO of DHL Global Forwarding India, will also expand his portfolio to include the entire sub-region of South Asia.

DHL Global Forwarding has appointed Yvonne Lee managing director of its Philippine operations effective January 1, 2021.

Lee was previously Head of Strategic Projects, DHL Global Forwarding ASEAN and South Asia, and Head of Business Processes and Organization, DHL Global Forwarding Thailand.

As managing director of DHL Global Forwarding Philippines, Lee is responsible for leading the business on its growth trajectory, DHL Global Forwarding said in a press statement. In line with the Deutsche Post DHL Group's Strategy 2025, she will also oversee the business' digital transformation efforts to elevate customer and employee experience as well as improve operational excellence.

"The Philippine economy, like many others, has taken a hit this year because of Covid-19, but is expected to see a gradual rebound from 2021 onwards, even as the ASEAN region anticipates consumer spending to double by 2030. With her experience across various business functions, including in a strategic regional role, and her sharp business acumen, Yvonne is the ideal candidate to lead our business in the Philippines to capture opportunities as the market recovers and moves into its next phase of growth," said Kelvin Leung, CEO, DHL Global Forwarding Asia Pacific.

"One of my key priorities is to drive an even more customer-centric approach in response to the evolving needs of local businesses, as we ramp up our digitalization efforts to provide customers with a better shipping experience. Having worked with colleagues in the Philippines in my previous role, I am excited to join a team of dynamic and committed freight forwarders to tackle the unique opportunities and challenges here," said Lee.

In her most recent role as Head of Strategic Projects, ASEAN and South Asia, Lee oversaw several key change management and transformation projects for the freight forwarder. Lee started her career with Deutsche Post DHL Group (DPDHL Group) as a Management Trainee in 1997 before moving on to a variety of roles spanning operations, project management, performance measurement and implementation of services for customers.

Lee was among the pioneer batch of mentors for the DGF AP Women Mentorship Program, which aims to support female employees in their career development journey. She is also a member of the Group's Disaster Response Team, which provides support in the wake of natural disasters by handling a range of logistics tasks at airports and coordinating the transfer of relief supplies to local relief organizations.

Lee holds a Master of Science degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering from the National University of Singapore, and completed INSEAD's International Management in Asia Pacific Program.

Yvonne Lee has been appointed managing director of DHL Global Forwarding Philippines effective January 1, 2021.

Sub-region of South Asia appointment

DHL Global Forwarding also appointed Niki Frank, CEO of DHL Global Forwarding India, who will expand his portfolio to include the entire sub-region of South Asia.

Frank will oversee the newly created South Asia sub-regional portfolio that comprise India, Pakistan, headed by Umair Alam as Managing Director, and Bangladesh and Sri Lanka managed by Fabian Rybka.

Prior to his current role, Frank spent seven years leading global transformation initiatives for DPDHL Group and DHL Global Forwarding, making major contributions to its pivotal growth strategy that saw the business revive its performance and regain market share.

Lee and Frank will report directly to Leung.

Manila eyes cold storage facility for COVID-19 vaccines

- The Manila City government will construct a cold storage facility at Santa Ana Hospital and purchase 12 refrigeration units and 50 transport coolers
- The facility and equipment will be used to store the incoming COVID-19 vaccines the city is buying for its residents
- The Manila City government last January 4 signed a tripartite agreement for the advance purchase of 800,000 COVID-19 vaccines

THE city government of Manila will construct a cold storage facility at Santa Ana Hospital to house coronavirus vaccines it will purchase for the city's residents.

Manila City mayor Francisco Domagoso on January 11 also announced that the city government has signed the documents to acquire 12 refrigeration units and 50 transport coolers for the expected arrival of the vaccines over the coming months.

Santa Ana Hospital is home to the Manila Infectious Disease Control Center inaugurated last year to help handle COVID-19 positive cases in the city.

Moreno said the refrigeration units can store around 300,000 vaccines at a time and handle various brands.

The city government last January 4 signed a tripartite agreement with the Department of Health (DOH)/National Task Force Against COVID-19 and United Kingdom-based pharmaceutical company AstraZeneca for the advance purchase of 800,000 COVID-19 vaccines for the use of the city's residents.

Aside from Manila City, various cities and provinces have also signed a tripartite agreement to buy COVID-19 vaccines.

The national government is also currently in talks with various vaccine manufacturers in different countries to secure vaccine doses.

These companies include China's Sinovac Biotech, Britain's Oxford-AstraZeneca, the United States' Pfizer-BioNTech and Moderna Inc.-Arcturus Therapeutics, Russia's Gamaleya, and Serum Institute of India's Novavax.

The Philippines has also requested the World Health Organization's Covax Facility, a global initiative that brings together governments and manufacturers, to ensure the COVID-19 vaccines reach those in greatest need.

DOH earlier said it plans to put up four cold storage facilities and two walk-in freezers in Metro Manila, as the metropolis will become the central hub for the storage of COVID-19 vaccines in the country.

DOH undersecretary Maria Rosario said the agency is also planning to establish cold chain hubs in other strategic areas in the country for storing the vaccines prior to distribution to facilities. DOH is looking to have one cold storage each in Bicol, Cebu, and Zamboanga.

Vergeire said talks with the private sector to assist in establishment of cold storage facilities across the country are ongoing.

The DOH official earlier said they are eyeing cold storage facilities nationwide, ideally in every region, to ensure proper storage for COVID-19 vaccines.

Vergeire said the type of cold storage facility needed will depend on the type of SARS-Cov 2 vaccine to be approved. Different SARS-Cov 2 vaccines have varying cold storage requirements, from ultra-low temperature conditions of about -70°C to the usual temperature used for cold storage.

SARS-Cov 2, the virus that causes the COVID-19 disease, was first detected in Wuhan, China in December 2019.

DOH is currently using the storage facility of the Research Institute for Tropical Medicine as the national vaccine storage facility. – Roumina Pablo

Global box volumes down just 1.7% in Jan-Nov 2020

- Far East to North America trade lane is best performer
- Global container volumes fared better than expected, seen to fall less than 1.5% for entire 2020

CONTAINER shipping volumes fell just 1.7% in the first 11 months of 2020, as the industry proved remarkably resilient in terms of volumes and freight rates amid the COVID-19 crisis, according to the Baltic and International Maritime Council (BIMCO).

After a 5-million TEU (7.3%) drop in volumes in the first five months of the year, volumes were down by only 1.7%—a loss of 2.6 million TEUs—by the end of November, it noted.

Of the three largest trades, Far East to North America has been the best performing, up by 1.1 million TEUs (6.4%) in the first 11 months of the year.

"The last few months have been the strongest for this trade, managing to more than make up for lost volumes in the early months of the year. This has caused problems for supply chains as the rush of containers has overwhelmed some ports," said BIMCO.

Though container volumes have been stronger in the last few months of 2020 than they were in 2019, both the intra-Asia and Far East to Europe trades remain in negative territory when looking at it on an accumulated basis: down by 1.3% and 5.3%, respectively, BIMCO said.

"BIMCO now expects global container volumes to have fallen by less than 1.5% in 2020, which is far better than what we anticipated when the pandemic raged in Q2, although even this figure hides how profitable a year it has in fact been for liner companies. Strong capacity management when volumes fell allowed them to minimize their loses, and they have since been able to cash in on low bunker prices and record high spot freight rates on many trades as volumes have improved," said Peter Sand, BIMCO's chief shipping analyst.

He said the coming quarters will see a strong focus on the repositioning of empties and evening out the imbalanced caused by the "stop-n-go demand" of 2020.

Furthermore, focus will now turn towards the Chinese New Year, which is set to be different fromany other in terms of both celebrations and exports.

SCMAP names officers for 2021

- Supply Chain Management Association of the Philippines board of directors has elected the organization's officers for 2021

which was inaugurated last month, and the establishment of a customs training institute.

BOC also aims to intensify this year its post-clearance audit and post-modification functions by implementing an enhanced procedure of account-based and transaction audit. The bureau will also implement a computer-aided risk management system and post-clearance collection payment guidelines.

Another priority is to encourage an additional 15 trade regulatory government agencies to join the NSW, the platform required to connect to the Association of Southeast Asian Nations Single Window. The goal is to have all 75 trade regulatory government agencies across 18 government departments fully interconnected via TradeNet.

TradeNet is the government's online platform for processing applications for import and export permits and serves as the country's NSW. TradeNet will eventually replace NSW Phase 1 currently being operated by BOC.

BOC said that to achieve its goal, it will engage more with agencies and stakeholders, and promote the benefits of implementing international standards through the use of the NSW. The bureau will also engage its mother agency, the Department of Finance, to arrange a workshop on the NSW for relevant stakeholders.

Another priority program is the full implementation of the Authorized Economic Operator (AEO) Program. This includes promoting the program and conducting an AEO Diagnostic Mission in 2021 to validate the processes in line with the World Customs Organization (WCO) guidelines.

BOC's AEO Program, which was launched in December 2019, complies with the country's commitment to WCO's SAFE Framework of Standards to Secure and Facilitate Global Trade. The AEO program represents a customs-to-business partnership that seeks to enhance international supply chain security and facilitate movement of legitimate goods.

BOC last year called on importers and exporters to join the program and become accredited as AEOs following the completion of measures that fully implement the program.

Also a priority is promoting and applying the advance ruling program as it provides consistency to assessment of a good's value, adds certainty and predictability to international trade and helps commercial importers or foreign exporters arrive at informed business decisions, said the agency.

Stakeholders are also urged to apply for advance ruling on issues of valuation or rules of origin for a better transaction experience.

To achieve this goal, BOC will conduct a survey on the awareness of BOC personnel and stakeholders of the advance ruling system, and disseminate and post customs orders on the advance ruling system for valuation and rules of origin.

BOC this year will also pursue integrity development and quality management to become "a professional, honest, and accountable organization."

It said it "will continue to instill good governance, professionalism and integrity in the institution and its individuals through integrity development which will be useful in decision-making as well as in improving individual and organizational performance."

The bureau will also continue to align its offices to ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management System standards.

Another priority program is to strengthen port surveillance, marine interdiction and water patrol capability. This will be done through increasing police manpower, conducting a series of marine interdiction for capacity building, and providing modern equipment to ensure stronger border control capabilities and prevent the entry of illegal commodities and anti-social goods.

BOC will also reactivate its Water Patrol Division, deploy additional personnel to conduct border patrol, and procure water patrol boats and surveillance equipment and other gadgets.

This year, too, it aims to enhance its customs facilities warehouse management through the use of ICT to exercise its full authority over such facilities and protect government revenue and prevent custom fraud.

BOC will finalize its customs memorandum order (CMO) on customs facilities and warehouses (CFW) and conduct training on CFW. It will also integrate inventory management in CFWs.

To streamline export procedures, meanwhile, BOC will also use ICT-enabled systems and modern techniques to process export declarations and issue certificates of origin and proof of origin. In addition, BOC will establish a comprehensive reporting and monitoring system for all export transactions.

BOC said that as part of this, the CMO on the export clearance process will be finalized, and training on the export clearance process will be conducted.

Lastly, BOC's priority programs include simplifying and fully automating its informal entry processing to enhance the bureau's capability to collect information, assess risks, and target high-risk shipments.

BOC will also issue relevant orders on its informal entry process and ensure mandatory X-ray inspection of all consolidated shipment of balikbayan (personal effects) boxes. The agency will at the same time make sure container yards, container freight stations, warehouse operators, and off-dock CFWs comply with the requirement to have an X-ray inspection facility.

Since 2019, BOC has been identifying 10 priority programs yearly that are geared towards accomplishing its organizational and operational targets for the year. – Roumina Pablo

DOF website accepts complaints vs corrupt officials

- The Department of Finance (DOF) website allows public to submit information against DOF and its attached agencies' officers and personnel with lifestyles grossly disproportionate to their lawful incomes
- The "Information against Corruption Page" is accessible under the Advocacies/Anti-Corruption menu of the DOF website
- DOF's Revenue Integrity Protection Service will run the page

THE Department of Finance (DOF) has launched a page on its website which allows the public to submit any information on corruption among officers and personnel of DOF and its attached agencies, such as the Bureau of Customs (BOC) and Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR).

The "Information against Corruption Page" allows the public to submit any information on officers and personnel of DOF and its attached agencies who might own properties or live lifestyles grossly disproportionate to their lawful incomes.

The page, which is accessible under the Advocacies/Anti-Corruption menu of the DOF website, can be accessed at www.dof.gov.ph/report-corruption.

DOF-attached agencies include BOC, BIR, Bureau of the Treasury, Bureau of Local Government Finance, Insurance Commission, National Tax Research Center, Central Board of Assessment Appeals, Philippine Deposit Insurance Corporation, Philippine Export-Import Credit Agency, Privatization and Management Office, and Securities and Exchange Commission.

DOF in a statement said the launching of the page is in support of the latest directive by the President to flush out grafters from the bureaucracy.

The submission of information initiates the power of the finance secretary under Executive Order (EO) No. 259 series of 2003 to investigate such information, submit the findings to the Office of the Ombudsman, and ask for the criminal prosecution and dismissal from the service of errant officials and personnel.

Traditionally, any information on suspected corruption needs to be reported to DOF face to face, but with the ongoing pandemic, this online tool allows the public to safely submit information directly to the DOF through their mobile devices.

DOF noted that even prior to the launch of the page, its Revenue Integrity Protection Service (RIPS) team has been conducting investigations on corruption within the department and its attached agencies.

Though RIPS is not a part of the Department of Justice (DOJ) Mega Task Force created a few weeks ago to investigate graft, Dominguez has informed Justice Secretary Menardo Guevarra about the team and its mandate to detect, investigate and prevent corruption at the DOF and its attached agencies.

Dominguez in his letter to Guevarra said the DOF would be pleased to assist the DOJ in investigating allegations of corruption in the entire bureaucracy.

"(The RIPS) has the authority to gather evidence and file the appropriate criminal, civil or administrative complaints against government officials and employees in the said offices before the appropriate court, or administrative body and actively assist in the prosecution of the cases," Dominguez added.

Since July 2016, the RIPS has initiated investigations against 384 officials and employees of DOF and its attached agencies.

The RIPS was able to secure successful resolutions against 57 individuals charged before the Civil Service Commission and the Office of the Ombudsman, 14 of whom were ordered dismissed from the service.

Dominguez said the DOJ may coordinate with RIPS executive director Ray Gilberto Espinosa "to discuss how our respective departments can work together towards this effort."

provincial government implements a truck ban to help ease traffic buildup in the towns of Consolacion and Liloan.

The truck ban in the two towns has been set from 5:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily, during which time no cargoes can be released or pulled out from the port.

During the meeting Garcia also asked truckers to deliver their cargoes within the scheduled pull-out time if possible, to lessen the volume of traffic during daytime.

Trailer trucks and wing van trucks plying the roads going to and from CIP are seen as one of the causes of heavy traffic in the north.

Garcia said the traffic congestion in northern Cebu has not only affected the riding public but businesses as well.

Although a truck ban has been implemented, heavy traffic and congested volume of vehicles have still been observed in the northern Cebu highways, leading to the proposal to extend the truck ban.

Liloan mayor Frasco, for her part, said that while the extended ban may pose challenges for the trucking industry, the consolidation is seen as a coordinated solution to the traffic.

She added that the goal is to alleviate the heavy traffic for everyone, as "the lesser time on the road and the lesser time your trucks are stuck in traffic, the better it is for you (truckers association) because we all know the more delays there are, more losses that you incur." – Roumina Pablo

Bridge linking Makati and Mandaluyong to open in Q2 2021

- Construction of the P1.47 billion Estrella-Pantaleon Bridge is more than 72% complete
- Motorists will be able to use the bridge by second quarter of 2021
- Once fully complete, the two-way four-lane bridge will provide an alternative route in crossing the Pasig River

MOTORISTS will be able to use the Estrella-Pantaleon Bridge, which links Estrella Street in Makati City and Barangka Drive in Mandaluyong City, by the second quarter of 2021, according to the Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH).

The construction of the P1.47 billion bridge is now more than 72% complete, the agency said.

Once fully complete, the two-way four-lane bridge will provide an alternative route crossing the Pasig River. The bridge has a total length of 506.46 meters and width of 21.65 meters, and has three-meter sidewalks on both sides.

Designed to decongest Guadalupe Bridge along Epifanio Delos Santos Avenue, the main bridge is a 146.0-meter pre-stressed concrete girder bridge with V-shaped piers, while the approach bridge/viaduct is a 66.0-meter pre-stressed continuous girder bridge. The approach roads at both sides have a length of 294.46 meters.

The widening and reconstruction works on the 506-meter bridge is financed by a grant from China.

DPWH in a statement said all bridge substructure works on abutments of both sides are complete, as well as piers on the Makati approach, the main bridge, and the V-shaped piers for the main bridge.

Also complete are concrete pouring works for four segments of pre-stressed concrete girder in the Mandaluyong side and concrete pouring works for the first lift of box girder for the approach bridge in Makati.

Public Works Secretary Mark Villar said the Unified Project Management Office is conducting thorough inspection of the project for resolution of technical issues, and to ensure quality standards and safety and to keep up with the pandemic-related challenges and backlog.

Global air cargo demand improves in November, capacity still tight

- Air cargo demand down year-on-year, but continues to improve month-on-month
- Current month-on-month gains indicate global demand will return to 2019 levels around March or April 2021

AIR freight volumes worldwide improved in November compared to October, but remain depressed compared to 2019, according to data from the International Air Transport Association (IATA).

Capacity remains constrained from the loss of available belly cargo space as passenger aircraft remain parked.

Global demand, measured in cargo tonne-kilometers, was 6.6% below previous-year levels in November. But the year-on-year decline is skewed as November 2019 had a boost in demand from the waning US-China trade war.

Month-on-month, November 2020 demand was on par with the 6.2% year-on-year drop in October. Seasonally adjusted demand continued to improve, increasing 1.6% month-on-month in November. This was a slight improvement over the monthly growth rate of 1.1% in October.

"Current month-on-month gains indicate that global demand will return to 2019 levels around March or April 2021," said IATA.

Global capacity, measured in available cargo tonne-kilometers, shrank by 20% in November compared to the previous year. That is nearly three times larger than the contraction in demand. The capacity crunch is caused by a 53% decrease in belly capacity, only partially offset by a 20% increase in freighter capacity.

Strong regional variations continue with North American carriers reporting year-on-year gains in demand (+5%), while all other regions remained in negative territory compared to a year earlier.

Asia-Pacific airlines reported a decline in year-on-year international demand of 9.5% in November 2020 compared to the same month a year earlier. This was a 2.2% improvement from the 11.7% fall in October 2020.

While international traffic within the region remains weak (down 19.6% year-on-year in November), exports on the Asia-North America and Asia-Europe routes are strong, driven by demand for e-commerce and PPE. International capacity remained constrained in the region, down 25.3%. However, this was an improvement over the 28.5% fall the previous month.

Economic conditions in November, normally the peak season for air cargo, remained positive, noted IATA:

The new export orders component of the manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) remained in growth territory in both developed and emerging markets for the third month in a row after two years of indicating negative growth

Retail sales for November were up by around 5% over 2019 for both China and the US, propelled by events like Black Friday and Singles Day

"Air cargo demand is still down 6.6% compared to the previous year, however we are seeing continuing month-on-month improvements. Severe capacity constraints persist as large parts of the passenger fleet remain grounded. This will put pressure on the industry as it gears up to deliver vital COVID-19 vaccines," said Alexandre de Juniac, IATA's director general and CEO.

BOC confiscates 28 tarantulas, scorpions smuggled from Thailand

- The Bureau of Customs has seized a package containing 20 endangered tarantulas and eight scorpions that was smuggled through the Central Mail Exchange Center in Pasay City from Thailand on January 6
- The misdeclared package contained 28 plastic containers individually holding tarantulas or scorpions and imported without the necessary permits
- Illegal importation, collection and trade of endangered wildlife is punishable by imprisonment of six years and a fine of P200,000 under the Wildlife Resources Protection and Conservation Act

A package containing a total of 20 endangered tarantulas and eight scorpions which was smuggled through the Central Mail Exchange Center in Pasay City from Thailand on January 6 was seized by the Bureau of Customs Ninoy Aquino International Airport (BOC NAIA).

When opened, the package from Samut Parakain, Thailand, revealed 28 plastic containers individually housing the tarantulas and scorpions, BOC said in a statement. The package was declared to contain "teaching equipment" and was imported without the necessary import permits.

The tarantulas and scorpions were turned over to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources-Wildlife Traffic Monitoring Unit for rehabilitation and care.

BOC noted that illegal importation, collection and trade of endangered wildlife is punishable by imprisonment of six years and a fine of P200,000 under Republic Act (RA) 9147 or the Wildlife Resources Protection and Conservation Act.

Moreover, under Section 1401 of RA 10863 or the Customs Modernization and Tariff Act, unlawful importation of goods with appraised value of more than P250,000, including duties and taxes, is penalized by imprisonment of not less than 30 days and one day but not more than six months, or a fine of not less than P25,000 but not more than P75,000.

BOC NAIA last October also intercepted 119 tarantulas from Poland and concealed in a pair of rubber shoes.
